What Homecoming does show us is a Peter Parker who's just an underappreciated high school sophomore with a superhero secret identity, and who's itching to get back into action after taking on Captain America and the rest of the Avengers in last year's Captain America: Civil War but can't tell a soul about it.. Instead of holding our breaths for that "Uncle Ben" moment, we get to experience and understand the conflict at Spider-Man's core: having to balance all the anxieties and uncertainties of being a teen while also knowing the thrilling power of being a superhero.

The movie is a soaring, fearless teenage dream And it feels so great to be able to say: Welcome home, Spidey.. We don't see Peter Parker () get bitten There aren't any references to Uncle Ben.. Tweaking the tension that surrounds his protagonist allows Watts to delve into new territory with the character.. And he's always lying to his Aunt May () about his "internship" at Stark Enterprises.. He and his best friend Ned () suddenly don't have time to mess around with their Star Wars toys.. Vox-mark vox-mark vox-mark Patient Spider-Man fans have been waiting 10 years for a story that's worthy of Spider-Man's legacy — one that's as much about the heart and soul of its hero as it is about slinging and swinging through the city sky.. — and that Peter's beloved Uncle Ben dies because Peter didn't stop a criminal when he had the chance. 773a7aa168 Colt Detective Special Serial Number Lookup
